

2018 TOOLBOX GRANTEES

Leadership Development

- CASA of Tarrant County: StrengthsFinder training to equip staff to identify and build on strengths in themselves, their volunteers, and the children they serve
- Community Hospice of Texas: Consulting to develop a bequest-focused giving program to increase support for uninsured patients and their families
- Eastside Ministries of Fort Worth: Nonprofit management courses, board development, and the Create Good conference
- Rivertree Academy: Board development to enhance the board's ability to lead Rivertree's continued growth and impact
- Tarrant Literacy Coalition: Consulting for strategic plan development and the purchase of a new donor database

Operational Efficiency

- AB Christian Learning Center: Develop a new website to provide information and obtain feedback necessary to meet the needs of families
- Christian Community Assistance: Software and hardware that will provide an upgrade to their client database and documentation system
- Communities in Schools of Greater Tarrant County: Tablets to pilot the caseworkers' use of remote technology in providing services in school, as well as a database update
- Community Food Bank: A technology overhaul, including new computers, software, and a server, to reduce operational friction from downtime or interruptions on their system
- Como Lions Heart, Inc.: Development of a new website and consulting services to develop a strategic plan
- Cornerstone Assistance Network: New computers to replace current computers reaching the end of their service life
- Guardianship Services, Inc.: A new server and upgraded technology that will be utilized in their financial exploitation prevention seminars
- Imagination Fort Worth: CNM-pact portal technology to track program outcomes
- Live Thankfully: Coaching and consulting to help the agency be more efficient in the areas of fundraising, leadership, and board management
- Education Foundation for Fort Worth Schools (for Manual Jara Elementary): 36 laptops that will be used in conjunction with a technology class for their Parent University program
- NewDay Services for Children and Families: New hardware and a server to increase and enhance program delivery
- Tarrant County Homeless Coalition: Purchase of the Outreach Link mobile application for local homeless outreach teams to utilize in serving the unsheltered homeless population

- LinkED: On-site technology and diagnostic testing to serve schools and organizations

Organizational Effectiveness

- Arlington Life Shelter: Consulting services to examine and define their family program outcomes
- Clayton Youth Enrichment: Trauma-informed care training from the Karyn Purvis Institute of Child Development at TCU
- Cristo Rey Fort Worth High School: Training for staff in the “Framework for Understanding Poverty” model
- Diamond Hill North Side Youth Association: A community needs assessment to develop a community action plan and train local wellness champions
- Early Learning Alliance: Consulting services to support ELA members in using the Results-Based Accountability model
- Fort Worth Drowning Prevention Coalition: Improvements for their Customer Relationship Management software to automate and integrate processes to enhance program outcomes and constituent partnerships
- Fortress Youth Development Center: CNM-pact data collection portal and consulting, and training in the “Bridges out of Poverty” model
- JPS Foundation: Support for outreach strategies to increase utilization of services for high-need youth at two Western Hills area JPS School-Based Health Centers
- Lena Pope: Funds to provide training in Conscious Discipline for child-care facilities that serve children from low-income households
- Renaissance Training Institute for Empowered Living, Inc: Nonprofit management consulting services
- The Jordan Elizabeth Harris Foundation: Funding to provide Question-Persuade-Refer (QPR) suicide prevention training in targeted high-poverty neighborhoods
- The Ladder Alliance: Consulting services to develop a fund-raising strategy to achieve stability and growth goals, and training to use the software DonorPerfect more effectively
- Trinity Habitat for Humanity: Training to equip staff to address financial issues facing families that do not qualify for a Habitat home
- University of North Texas Health Science Center Foundation: Funds to conduct a needs assessment of communities served by the Pediatric Mobile Clinic
- WestAid: Consulting services to map a strategy to meet physical space and board development needs to better leverage community investment