

2021 Grant Opportunity: Combatting Food Insecurity in Tarrant County

WORTH is a membership group comprised of emerging change makers (ages 22-40). Members learn about critical needs facing our community and decide how to meet those needs through a collaborative grantmaking process. The group has awarded over $100,000 to local nonprofits since 2016.

WORTH's 2021 focus area is food insecurity. North Texas Community Foundation is accepting funding requests of up to $10,000 from nonprofits combatting food insecurity.

ORGANIZATIONAL ELIGIBILITY

- 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations based in Tarrant County with an annual budget under $1M
- Food insecurity must be a core component of the organization's mission
- Religious congregations and homeless shelters may not apply

ELIGIBLE PROJECTS

- Any need related to food insecurity (food, supplies, equipment, staffing, etc.)
- Projects that can begin by May 2021 and be completed within one-year or less

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Proposal articulates a clear, well thought out plan for fund usage
- Project effectively and compellingly addresses the organization's ability to combat food insecurity, producing a strong return-on-investment in the community
- WORTH members tend to give preference toward requests where a significant portion of the project's funding is supported by their grant

SUBMISSION PROCESS

- Proposals must be submitted online here.
- Organizations may upload a link to a two-minute video in their proposal.
- Application deadline is 5PM on Thursday, April 15th.
- Finalists will be required to present their proposed project to WORTH members via Zoom between 6PM-8PM on Thursday, April 29th, when final award decisions will be made.
- Submission must include all relevant documents including project budget, organizational budget, and bids for any purchases or contract services requested in the grant.
- The grant recipient(s) will host WORTH members for a site visit (virtually or in-person TBD) at the end of May 2021.

Questions? Contact Garrett March at (817) 877.0702 or gmarch@northtexascf.org.

NORTH TEXAS
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Philanthropic Solutions