

2024 Animal Welfare, Equine Therapy and Conservation & Environment Grantees

Animal Welfare – Dogs, Cats and Horses

Buster's Friends: To support spay/neuter surgeries, specialty animal care, vaccinations and support animal foster homes.

Community Food Bank: To replenish the supply of dog and cat food for families in need.

Don't Forget to Feed Me: For the purchase cat and dog food to distribute in the community.

Friends of Arlington Animal Services: To provide spay/neuter surgeries for feral cats served through the Trap-Neuter-Return program and heartworm treatment for dogs.

Humane Society of North Texas:

- For the construction of three play yards at the Fort Worth shelter.
- For the purchase of essential equine equipment, including run-in sheds, round pens, and rope breakaway halters.

Mid-Cities Community Cats: To provide medical care for feral cats served through the Trap-Neuter-Vaccinate-Return program.

Panther City Feral Cat Coalition: To provide Trap-Neuter-Vaccinate-Return services and medical care for injured and ill cats who are feral or abandoned.

Ranch Hands Rescue: For the veterinary services, farrier care, dental and medication of the rescued equine in the animal sanctuary.

Remember Me Rescue: For the enhancement of the quarantine facilities, covered concrete pad and stock for the rescued racehorses.

Saving Hope Foundation: To provide free spay and neuter surgeries, vaccinations, and microchips provided in southeast Fort Worth.

Spay Neuter Network: To provide spay/neuter surgeries for dogs and cats in Fort Worth.

Texas Coalition for Animal Protection: To support the Fort Worth Fix program providing spay/neuter services for pets of low-income residents in Fort Worth.

Equine Therapy

All Star Equestrian Foundation: To purchase feed and provide farrier care for the herd of therapy horses.

Stars and Strides Therapeutic Riding Center: For the addition of two covered loafing sheds for protection of the herd of therapy horses.

Wings of Hope: For the veterinary services, farrier care, nutritional health and general care of the therapy horses.

2024 Animal Welfare, Equine Therapy and Conservation & Environment Grantees

Conservation & Environment

BRAVE/R Together: For the conversion of vacant lots into urban gardens and parks.

By Any Means 104/Southside Community Garden: For the creation of a permaculture station in 76104.

Camp Fire First Texas: To provide support for Title 1 schools to attend the Texas Outdoor Education Center.

Child Care Associates: To construct a greenhouse at LVTRise Community Center to provide fresh produce for the center and community.

Fossil Rim Wildlife Center: For the purchase of a no-till drill to plant native grasses for erosion control and wildlife grazing.

Friends of the Fort Worth Nature Center & Refuge: For the enhancement of native prairie sites at the Center.

KEEN Group: To provide environmental education field trips to a Texas State Parks Hatchery and Nature Photography classes.

National Wildlife Federation: To help in the recovery of monarch butterflies through empowering Fort Worth ISD students, teachers and community members to create milkweed habitats.

Native Prairies Association of Texas: for support of a conservation easement in North Texas to protect vital landscape.

Opening Doors For Women In Need: For support of the Como Community Gardens.

Streams & Valleys: To provide support for the Trinity Park Trail Enhancement Project.

Texas Land Conservancy: To provide assistance to land owners who may not have the financial means to finalize conservation easements.

The Clark Gardens: For the rehabilitation of a pollinator garden

University of North Texas Foundation: To support the continued efforts to reestablish, protect and conserve 85 acres of prairie lands at Lewisville Lake Environmental Learning Area.

TOTAL AMOUNT AWARDED: $290,344

Supporting Funds

- The Animal Fund
- The Conservation & Environment Fund
- Mary K. McGee Charitable Fund
- Anita Berry Martin Memorial Endowment Fund
- Helen D. and R.E. (Bob) Wallace Foundation Fund